A referral does not guarantee that an MLPC attorney will represent your patient. The MLPC's case acceptance priorities are subject to change depending on staff capacity, the results of our annual advocacy planning process, and other factors.

The MLPC will generally help families with the following legal issues:

- | | |
|---|---|
| » Education: Problems with 504 plans, IEPs, or other school problems related to a child's medical or mental health condition | » SSI (Child) |
| » Housing: Eviction; landlord refusal to remedy unhealthy or unsafe housing condition | » Medicaid: Denial or termination of Medicaid coverage or waiver; denial of medically necessary equipment, prescription, treatment, or other service |

Other legal issues that legal aid advocates at ABLE and LAWO may be able to assist with:

- | | |
|---|--|
| » Immigration | » Public Benefits (Child Care, OWF, SNAP) |
| » Civil Protection Order (CPO) / Domestic Violence | » SSDI/SSI (Adult) |
